BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF MEDIATION STYLE (no more than 100 words):

My approach to mediation is to work as a neutral third party helping the disputants identify their vital interest, and assisting them in working toward a settlement that satisfies those interests. By establishing an informal, non-threatening setting designed to create an atmosphere conducive to compromise and settlement, I encourage the active participation of the parties and, if represented, their lawyers. If requested by all concerned, I can provide an assessment of one or more facets of the dispute, including the ultimate outcome in trial or arbitration.
